

Donald School Journal of Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology is the official journal of the Ian Donald School of Medical Ultrasound. The journal publishes comprehensive, analytical, and critical reviews on important subjects in ultrasound diagnosis in obstetrics and gynecology. An invitation to prepare a review usually originates with the editors. However, unsolicited manuscripts are welcome, and published when they meet the scientific and literary standards set by the Editorial Board.

The Journal is published quarterly by Jaypee Brothers Medical Publishers, <http://www.jaypeebrothers.com/>

You can submit your review through official web page of publisher or you can send it to Ms. Jadranka Cerovec, secretary of the Journal, email: jadranka.cerovec@yahoo.com
